CLASS HISTORY

Back in 1940 a bunch of 48 misinformed children happily started school. After one week they realized that it wasn't the fun Mommy had said it would be, and they sadly settled down to face twelve years of reading, writing, and what have you.

Second grade marked the beginning of Lila Wise's hectic love life, and her first conquest was Johnny Clay. In third grade Clay was out of luck because George moved to town. That was the year everyone came home with dirty pants-seats because Miss Scheel made us sit on the floor when we forgot our pants clothes.

In fourth grade we had Miss Layser, but even a red head couldn't cope with us. Billy Rittle had a first class crush on her and she was having lots of trouble with Easley, Bollinger, and Clay.

Miss Uhrich was our fifth grade teacher. Most of us received our first slaps from her. However, we thought a great deal of her and fought with each other to clean out the dirty pigeon hole and to scratch her back.

Mr. Snively, our sixth grade teacher, punished us by throwing chalk. Is it any wonder that all of us came home looking like erasers?

Seventh grade was a big year in our lives. Now we didn't play boys catch the girls. Certainly not, we were grown up. Now it was girls catch the boys. Eighth grade found us blasé to the rigors of high school. This year many of us occupied the corners of Mr. Mitchell's science class.

The voice of Miss Donough, our ninth grade homeroom teacher, was often heard echoing throughout the halls. This year many of us struggled in our efforts to understand algebra. Jeanne and Joyce had their first escapade with the office due to their hookey-playing.

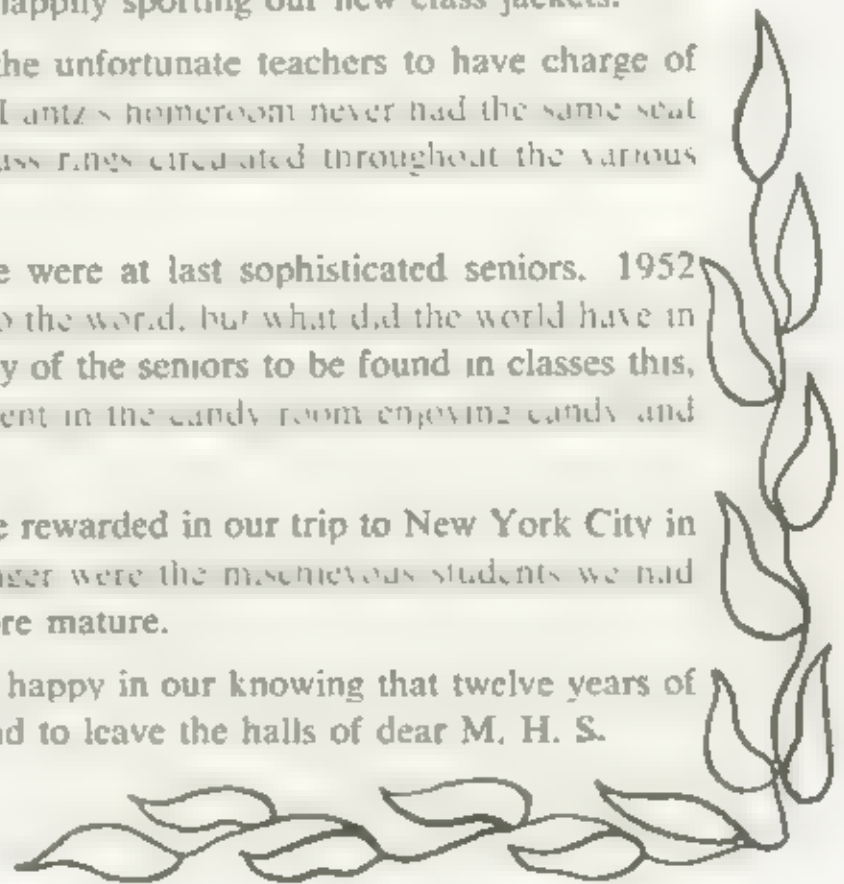

Tenth grade found Jeanne and Joyce still in trouble with the office. The 10-A section was exceptionally well-behaved since Mr. Batdorf was their homeroom teacher. The end of the year found us happily sporting our new class jackets.

Miss Immel and Mr. Lantz were the unfortunate teachers to have charge of us in eleventh grade. The pupils in Mr. Lantz's homeroom never had the same seat for more than two weeks. This year class rings circulated throughout the various classes.

Finally we achieved our goal. We were at last sophisticated seniors. 1952 found us ready and waiting to go out into the world, but what did the world have in store for us? It was very unusual for any of the seniors to be found in classes this, our last year. Much of our time was spent in the candy room enjoying candy and cokes.

We worked hard this year, but were rewarded in our trip to New York City in May. By the end of the year we no longer were the mischievous students we had been, but were partially settled and more mature.

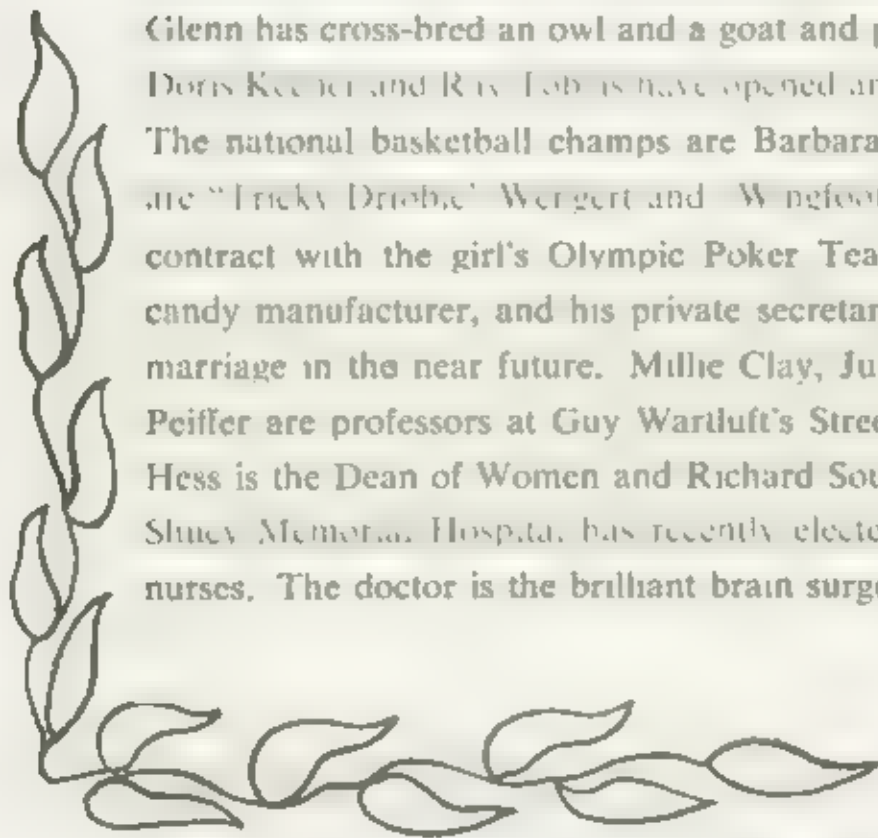

Commencement exercises found us happy in our knowing that twelve years of school were now completed; and also sad to leave the halls of dear M. H. S.

CLASS PROPHECY

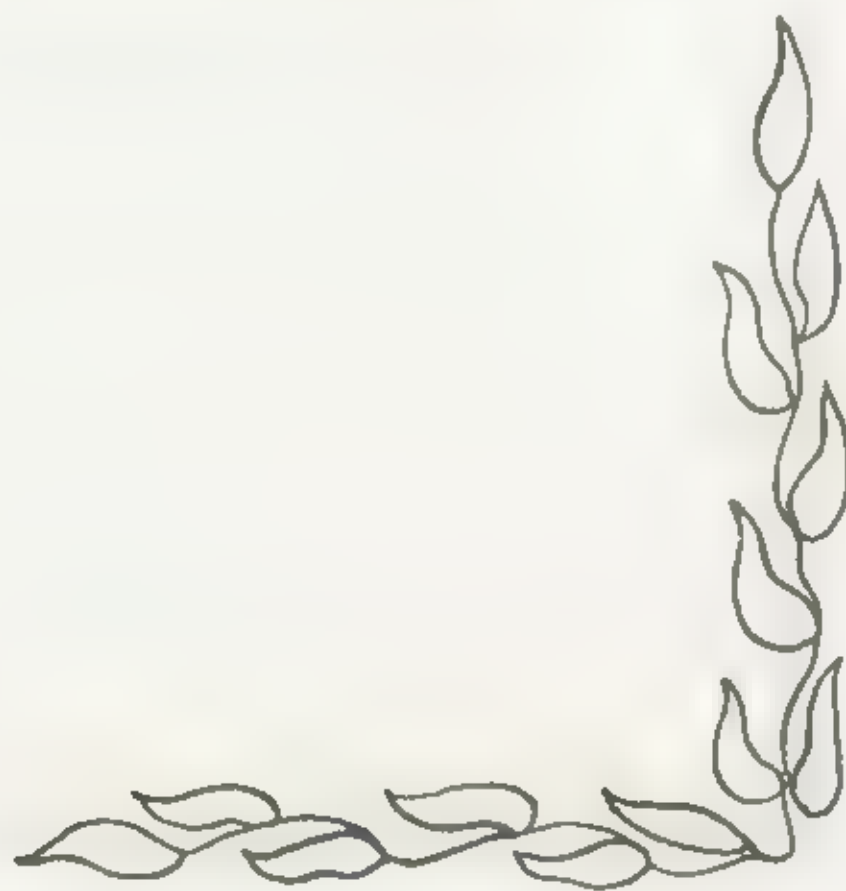

As we look ahead fifteen years we see the members of the Class of 1952 assuming the roles of both leading and well known citizens of our country.

Myerstown has elected its first woman burgess, Prohibition candidate—Carolyn Lebo. The man responsible for her election is Marvin Weidner, a sworn totalitarian (not saying which way he feels). Another outstanding figure in the political world is Raymond Phillips, who has recently been nominated for the national presidency by the Vegetarian Party. "Wild Carol" Bird and "Saddle Crazy" Harding are touring the country with their exciting Wild West Show. Pat Umberger has recently been honored with the title of Mother of the Year because as well as raising twenty-four children she also raised a brood of 500,000 chickens. Marlene Carlott and Joann Yeagley are the featured stars in Ronald Sel's Aquacade. Martin O'Bryan and Lanny Schott are the happily married proprietors of "Charmie's Inn." The outstanding show on Broadway is "North Atlantic" written by Joyce Keeney. Its star is none other than Russell "Mario" Yost, who is taking the place of the immortal Jack Haines. Two other famous showpeople are Shirley Frantz and Richard Andrews, who are appearing at the Met in Phyllis Kline's opera, Schnitzelbank. Robert Brown has been awarded an Oscar for his role in a remake of "The Great Caruso." James Gaylor's All-Girl Orchestra now features Iris Bricker and her Magic Violin. Marian Umberger has recently obtained her thirteenth divorce, and she has been asked by the Nevada Chamber of Commerce to establish a permanent residence in Reno. O. E. Lycoen, Fred Rappenthal and his wife Shirley Ronald Rappenthal have recently returned from Puerto Rico where they claimed two new gashers. The New York Social Register has named Lila Wise the Deb of the Year. Their president is George Eisley. Glenn Donough has been given the Emerson Haet Award for outstanding research in the field of animal breeding. Glenn has cross-bred an owl and a goat and presented to the world a Hoot-Nanny. Doris Keener and Ray Tobis have opened an auction house on the road to Buffy's. The national basketball champs are Barbara Shott's Speedgirls. Her star players are "Tricky Dribble" Wergert and "Wingfoot" Stecher. Gwen Miller has signed a contract with the girl's Olympic Poker Team. Ronald Lehman is a prominent candy manufacturer, and his private secretary is Nancy Ream. Friends predict a marriage in the near future. Millie Clay, June Miller, Janice Bashore, and Lynn Peiffer are professors at Guy Warluft's Streetcleaners and Janitors College. Alta Hess is the Dean of Women and Richard Souders the Dean of Men. The William Shuey Memorial Hospital has recently elected to the staff a new doctor and two nurses. The doctor is the brilliant brain surgeon, Harry Shaak, and the nurses are

Mary Rothenbach and Shirley Math. Multimillionaire William Rittie has just published his life story, From Rags to Riches with a Lebanon Daily News Paper Route. The Zue Manufacturing Company, canners of Riter's Tomater Sauce has opened a new plant in Mt. Zion. Orval Garloff is in charge of the rotten tomatoes and Kenneth Ylangst is the sales Manager. Calvin Beamesdexter has opened a new night club in Reistville called Caypso Calie's Cabana. He sells drinks to ex-minors exclusively and his business is exceptionally fine. James Bolmeier, founder of Suppie's Slurpy Soups Inc. is Myerstown's latest millionaire which makes Carolyn Ressler especially happy. Eden Snyder is still in M. H. S. with the additional duty of being secretary to Mr. Bennetch. Julia Beidler, Shirley Miller, Gladys Ziegler, and Gail Dietrich are old married women content and happy raising broods of children. Howard Brandt is a singer on the Grand Ole Opry hour, as well as a soap manufacturer. Marvellen Frantz has written a thesis on Einstein's Theory of Relativity arguing that it is unfair to aunts and uncles. Eugene Brightbill is giving doctors the 30 day Camel test. His side kick, Connie Kessler, is dancing for the Murel Cigar ads. Arlene Shower and Marilyn Schell have opened a new resort hotel in Atlantic City only ten miles from the Boardwalk. In the television field Della Long and Neal Hoke are delighting audiences with "Della and Neale's Breakfast Club." Robert Wetzel and Loretta Stam have opened a dancing studio in New York where he is popularly known as the Square Dance Kid. Loretta Logeman is having her first art exhibition of her breath-taking oil paintings in the David Hoover Museum for Struggling Artists. Last, but not least, we mention John Clay, our ill-fated explorer who when last heard from, was wandering in the Amazon Jungle looking for Chloe.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1952, Myerstown High School, Borough of Myerstown, County of Lebanon, and Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

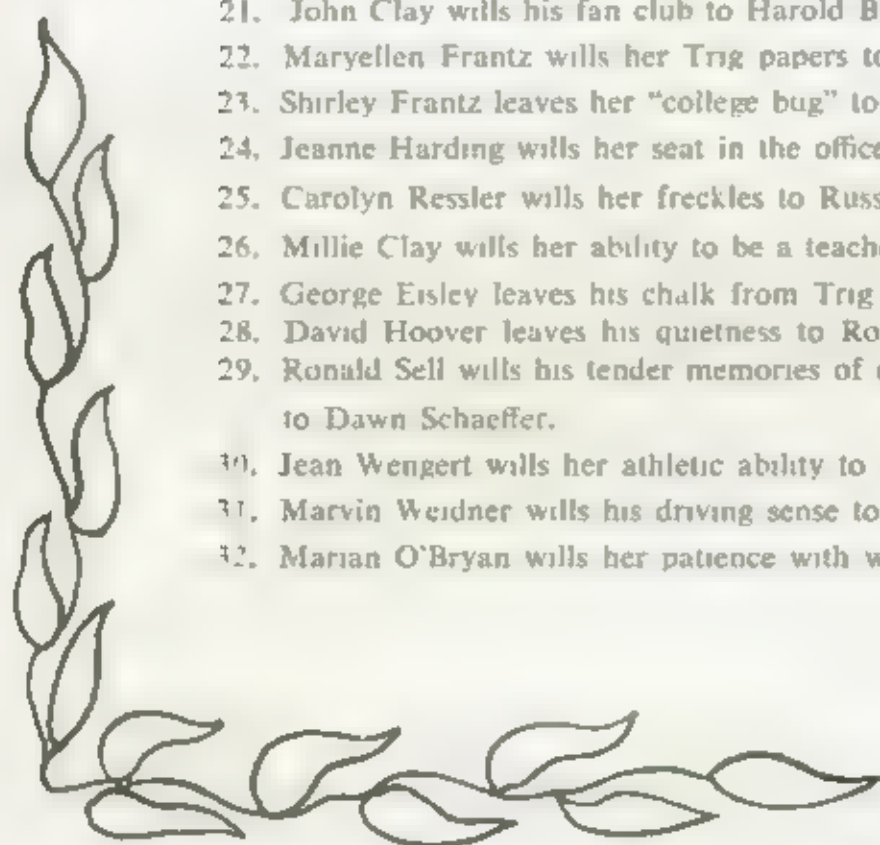

Be it known by all those present, that we, the Class of 1952, being of sound minds, stable characters, brilliant mentalities and first class lairs, do make and publish this our first and last will and testament.

First: We bequeath to the school board and faculty our intelligent minds and our sincere concern for education. For this we confer our blessing to all students.

Second: To Mr. Nitrauer we leave our thanks for always catching us when we did something bad and teaching us that crime doesn't pay.

Third: To the following souls we leave our most desirable (???) traits:

1. Shirley Ranaldi wills Gay Seibert a picture of Fred.
2. Loretta Stum leaves her nickname, Poochie, to Mr. Batdorf
3. Joyce Keeney bequeaths her typing speed to Alma Shenk.
4. Calvin Beamesderfer wills Walter Whitmoyer his physique
5. Lanny Schott leaves his ability to go steady and step out to his brother Terry.
6. Evelyn Stecher wills Ernie Troutman to Henrietta Fetter.
7. Lila Wise wills her man catching charms to Virginia Lebo
8. Raymond Phillips bequeaths to Mr. Lantz his inhaler and chap-stick.
9. Ronald Lehman leaves the candy room to some unlucky jerk.
10. Robert Brown wills his ability to make book reports to Nancy Honker.
11. Fred Ruppenthal wills his knowledge of the Spanish language to Mrs. Gates.
12. Barbara Schott wills her title of Senior Cowgirl to Helen Gass.
13. Robert Wetzel leaves his hoe-downing technique to Mr. Yeagley.

Music: Shirley Frazz

Class Song

Words: Maryellen Frazz
Iris Bricker

The musical score is written for a four-part setting (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in 4/4 time, with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody is primarily in the Soprano part, with the other parts providing harmonic support. The lyrics are written in the center of the staves. The score consists of four systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The lyrics are as follows:

we the seniors of fifty two, as we journey on our we've enjoyed twelve years of school though we grumbled and com-way, we'll all remember you MHS even though we're far a-plained, we'll miss the friends that we've made thru the years and miss the teachers way, we'll n'r forget the good times that we had in Myerstown's hallowed too, we will soon be leaving good old MHS to make our way in halls, where life, so sorry to leave you cause we love you best of
as we leave these sacred halls we'll always think of all.
you, you, you

Row 3: Coach Hoffman, G. Lessig, R. Strause, J. Mentzer, G. Lehman

Out of the fourteen games played, the soccer team won six, lost six, and tied two. The latter two were played with Cornwall and Robesonia

The co-captains were James Bollinger and Neal Hoke

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The members were Lanny Schott and Russell Yost, Ronald Lehman, John Clay, Larry Mentzer, Ronald Sell, Ray Tenny, Bill Shuey, Bob Houser, and George Easley.

Managers — John Wilhelm, Gordon Lehman, and Robert Bashore.

This season lady luck smiled on the M. H. S. Team. Our fellows played exceptionally good ball, and as a result won the County Class C championship. One of the important games was played with Palmyra, which we lost, 44 to 43.

The boys from M. H. S. won fourteen games and lost four out of the eighteen games played. The Varsity team consisted of eight seniors and two juniors. Lanny Schott and Russell Yost were the Co-Captains. M. H. S. is very proud of its team this year, for it has been the best in several years.

During the year 1951-52 these ten girls cheered at baseball, hockey, soccer, and basketball games.

Under Mr. Hoffman's instruction, the girls revived the custom of pep meetings and showed improved technique in the art of cheering. Because of their untiring efforts, a better school spirit has been injected into the student body.

HOCKEY

Hockey, which was created at Mystown this year by our coach Miss Helen Brightbill, proved to be a very successful team sport. The team had a record of one win, one tie, and one loss. They took top honors by defeating Pottsville, Annville, and Jonestown at the Joint Day Tournament, held at Lebanon Valley College in October, and won more points of the My County Team than any other school in the county. Those selected at the tournament for the team were Shirley Acker, Joyce Keener, Lois Metzger, and Barbara York. Second team selections included Jean Wenger, Jane Donner, and Barbara Sherr.

SCORES OF THE SEASON

Jonestown 2-1 won
Annville 1-1 tie
Annville 5-2 lost
